to pay for her home in Newton," she testified.

"He finally became so abusive that I had to lock myself in my room. I was afraid of him."

"Once he beat me with a dog leash on which was a heavy metal clasp. I was black and blue from the blows he struck."

Continuing her direct testimony, Mrs. Hartford said she has maintained a room at Hotel Brunswick at four dollars a day. Also that it was used for military purposes.

She testified she made hats and other wearing apparel for her woman friends.

SAYS MOTHER BOUGHT CAR

Cross-examination by Attorney John P. Fenney revealed that an expensive auto which she drove was registered in the name of Helen L. Vana Clay. It is a 1919 Buick.

She stated she was then living at No. 219 Harvard street, Brookline.

Questioned further about the car she said it was in her mother's name and that her mother gave her the money to buy the car. She had paid off one of two notes on the car.

Q—Have you had charge accounts in any of the Boston stores since March 1, 1921? A—Yes.

Q—Whose name? A—Mine.

Q—Do you know Mr. Trot? A—Yes.

Q—And his first name is John? A—I think so.

Q—Did you have an account at Stutney's and R. H. Stearns? A—Yes.

TROTT GUARANTEED ACCOUNT.

Q—Did Mr. Trot guarantee your account there? A—Yes.

Q—Was Mr. Trot a married man then? A—I don't recall.

Q—Did anyone guarantee your store accounts during your married life? A—They might have.

Q—Why did Trot guarantee your account in Boston stores? A—As a favor to me and my mother.

Q—Then he paid some of your accounts as a favor? A—No, he did not. I paid them myself.

Attorney Fenney then showed her itemized statements at Stutney's and R. H. Stearns in which John A. Trot, then married, and now of Brookline, asked the store "kindly show Mrs. Helen C. Hartford to charge goods to my account."

He then introduced a letter dated April 2, 1920, addressed to R. H. Stearns and Company in which John A. Trot, then married, and now of Brookline, asked the store "kindly show Mrs. Helen C. Hartford to charge goods to my account."

SUBMITS CHECK FOR $50.

Another letter, dated December 4, 1921, addressed to E. C. Slattery Company, was also introduced, showing that Trot had guaranteed her account.

Q—Did Mr. Trot guarantee your accounts at the stores? A—Yes, for my mother and I.

Attorney Fenney produced another letter from Trot to a department store in which Trot said "Kindly please find check of $50."

It was brought out that this check was one which was sent a month before Mrs. Hartford left her husband.

Mrs. Hartford declared that she met Trot at a house gathering in Winchester in 1918.

TROTT DIVORCED.

Q—She was divorced from him, was she not? A—I think so.

Q—As a matter of fact you know so, don't you? A—Why, yes.

Q—Did you ever visit Mr. Trot in New York? A—No, I don't think so.

Q—Did you meet him at any time? A—No. Well, I don't just understand what you mean?

Q—I want to know did you ever meet him anywhere or any time in New York? A—Yes.

Q—Where? A—In September of 1918 at the Prince George Hotel.

Q—Did you stop there? A—Yes.

Q—How long? A—Three days.

Q—And you paid the bill? A—My mother paid the bill.

Q—You mother drove over to New York with you and Mr. Trot's father? A—Yes, sir.

Q—Where did he go? A—To Brooklyn. I drove him to his son's home.

Q—And that was Mr. Trot's car? A—Yes.

BOUGHT CAR FROM TROTT.

Q—And he finally gave it to you? A—Yes.

Q—In whose name? A—My mother's.

Q—And you still say he gave it to your mother? A—No, he said it to my mother.

Attorney Fenney then brought out that the car has since been exchanged for a large touring car.

MUFFLER LAW FOR GASOLINE BOATS KILLED

Bill Aimed by Rich at Clammers and Fishermen, Smith of Cape Charges

Responding to the vigorous protests raised by the Representatives from practically every seaport in the state, the House of Representatives today unanimously rejected the bill which would require all motorboats to be equipped with muffling devices that would "prevent the noise being heard in excess of 1,000 feet from the point of its issuance."

Representative William H. Hoar of East Boston said it would be ridiculous to fix the distance, for in a quiet area the noise could be heard 1,000 feet that would not be heard 100 feet in a storm.

Representative John Thomas of Gloucester said a few years ago the legislature passed a law to silence bell boats and the vessels pulled onto the river in the near Autumn.

Representative Jerome Smith of Provincetown declared that the bill struck at the food supply, it being aimed at the clammers and fishermen.

Representative Hester of Dennis asserted: "The bill is against the poor and for the rich, who want to cause such a ruck in the morning and then go to bed, when honest fishermen are beginning the day's work."

GIRL BRAINS OF GANG OF SAFE LOOTERS

Planned Job That Netted Bank $75,000 in Big New York Building

By the Associated Press.

New York, April 14.—A story of a gang of safe-brokers, working with the aid of a girl stenographer used as a scout, today was obtained by detective investigating a raid on the Royal Insurance Company building in which nearly $75,000 worth of cash and securities were taken from a number of offices.

The police claimed to have obtained the story from George Brockbridge, a watchman, who was found bound and gagged. According to detectives, he confessed being a party to the robbery although he professed not to know the names of any of the robbers.

The superintendent of the building stated that Brockbridge, a member of the police reserves, had obtained his job as watchman on the strength of a letter of recommendation written on police department stationery and purporting to have been signed by Captain Wall of the East sixty-seventh street station.

The police asserted that Brockbridge induced a plan for systematic robbing of large office buildings in which the girl, a sweetheart of one of the band, played an important role.

The girl would obtain employment in one of the offices chosen by the gang, make plans of the building and learn the method of handling the money. Then she would turn her information over to her band leader, and resign, according to the police, sharing the loot when the gang did the job.

It is the Brookside IDEA that has made these wonderful values possible—an idea upon which a great business has been built—an idea around which is woven the wasteful methods of distribution that are solving the high-cost food problems in rapidly increasing thousands of New England homes.

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON BOSTON SOCIETY

Seven Weddings to Keep Smart Set Busy Next Week

Mrs. Robert W. Knowles is one of the many smart set matrons who find tennis such a popular diversion. Mrs. Knowles lives at No. 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge.

MRS. ROBERT W. KNOWLES

By BETTY ALDEN.

UNTIL no less than seven weddings of interest to the smart set scheduled to take place during the coming week, Boston's fashionable society promises to be kept more or less "on the go." The Abbott-Lothrop nuptials will usher in the week in royal fashion with one of the smartest ceremonies of the entire season, for both Eleanor Abbott and young Francis Bacon Lothrop have no end of distinguished family connections. The marriage will take place on Monday afternoon at Trinity Church. Also on Monday comes the wedding of Miss Margaret Jenks and John Hitchcock, son of Mrs. John Hitchcock of Commonwealth avenue. The ceremony will be solemnized in the Eliot Congregational Church, Newton.

There is a decided Boston interest in the wedding of Miss Helen Danforth Smith of Omaha and Cabot and Philip Gray Lovell of Cambridge, to take place on Tuesday in the Western home of the Smiths—for the bride made her debut three Summers ago at the Smiths' Colonial estate, her cousin, Miss Ruth Putnam, of Brookline, being introduced to society at the same time. There is also a Boston interest in the New York wedding of Miss Eleanor London and Philip MacC. Parker, for Miss Helen Bremer of Marlboro street will be one of the bridesmaids at the marriage, which will take place on Wednesday at Grace Church.

The last day of the week will close with three "love, honor and obey" affairs, the wedding of Miss Lucie Hebe and Alfred Wright Rockwood having a town setting at Emmanuel Church; the ceremony which will transfer Miss Katherine Walker into Mrs. Lindsay Bradford will take place in Brookline, while Miss Eleanor Brewer has selected the Unitarian Church in Jamaica Plain as the scene for her wedding.

Also of interest to society is the wedding of Miss Marion Churchill and William A. Maller, the ceremony to take place on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents in Arlington.

A large and interested crowd gathered at the Newport Art Association during the mid-week for the last exhibition of antique furniture and other articles. Over 150 pieces were shown, representative of the period of 1730 to 1860, many being loaned from the splendid estates which line the cliffs at Rhode Island's famous waterpark.

I note that among those famous rare specimens were Mrs. John Nicholas Brown and her son, who have been for the winter at No. 181 Commonwealth avenue, where they were last year. Both Mrs. Brown and her son, who is finishing his course at Harvard this year, recently paid a visit to their estate in Newport, where they are among the prominent members of the Summer colony.

Following the exhibition held at the Art Association, tea was served and a group of young women danced in costumes of the period.

Apocryphal of Newport, it seems that the battle over the leasing of Easton's Beach is not yet over. There will be a hearing before the Superior Court next May for those who seek to place an injunction on the leasing of the beach, as recently granted by the Board of Aldermen.

During the interval when the Board of Aldermen were considering the leasing of Easton's Beach, Newport's chief executive was swamped daily with telegrams sent by members of the exclusive Summer colony protesting the leasing of the beach to the Newport Beach Corporation. The latter organization is planning to transform the beach into a "Billie Conkey," which, needless to say, will not tend to beautify the scenery, so far as Summer residents are concerned.

But the telegrams, evidently, availed nothing, for the Board of Aldermen, after considerable deliberation, awarded the lease to the present holders.

The Summer residents, who have formed an organization of their own known as the Easton Beach Association, declare that the beach and to spend as much money in beautifying the property as the Newport Beach Corporation intends to spend in setting up the second Ocean Island.

HOPED TO GUIDE HUSBAND FROM SPIRIT WORLD

Newark Wife Who Killed Baby and Took Poison Explains Her Act

By Associated Press.
Newark, N. J., April 14.—Mrs. Maud Fancher, who swallowed poison yesterday after slaying her baby son Cecil Raymond, vowed to guide her husband to happiness as an emancipated spirit. She is at death's door in city hospital.

The story of her belief in spiritualism is told in the three columns of twenty pages written before she took the poison, one after the baby's death and the third as she was half-conscious herself.

Her husband said today that soon after they were married in Detroit three years ago, they attended a seance at a private home in that city and both talked to their dead parents.

Since that time, he said, Mrs. Fancher has taken a great interest in spiritualism.

"When spiritualism," her husband commented bitterly, "has gone too far, it has gone too far."

Mrs. Fancher's health had been very poor since the birth of their son, and she felt, her letters indicated, that her death would relieve her husband of a severe handicap.

She took the baby's life because she could not bear to think of someone else taking it, she said.

2 WOMEN SEEK CUSTODY OF 3 GIRL ORPHANS

Court to Decide Whether They Shall Be Brought Up in Mormon Faith

The question of whether three girl orphans shall be brought up as Mormons was involved in a custody case today in Suffolk Superior Court.

The children are Marion L. Gilbert, five years old, Ruth C. seven and Georgia E. nine, whose parents died five years ago.

The children are in temporary custody of Mrs. Charlotte Walter Burs, proprietor of a music school at No. 18 Haystack street. Mrs. Burs petitioned the court for permanent custody of the children.

The petition is opposed by Mrs. Fath Gilbert, of Danbury, Ct., an aunt, William Gilbert, of Lynn, an uncle, and Miss Florence C. Jepperson, a professor of music in the University of Utah.

The aunt and uncle testified that the mother, on her dying bed, expressed a wish that the children be placed in charge of Miss Jepperson and brought up as Mormons in Utah.

Miss Jepperson now has a petition for their custody pending in court.

"I do not believe it is right to have these children brought up as Mormons," testified Mrs. Burs. "I believe they should be brought up here in the East. That is what I intend to do with them if given permanent custody."

She said the oldest child was a talented young musician and she stated this talent should be developed here in Boston.

The children were not in court. DAUCHERTY TO PRESS $2,000,000 WAR CLAIM

IRMA SEYDEL, TALENTED HUB VIOLINIST, 'FOOLS RADIOPHONE'

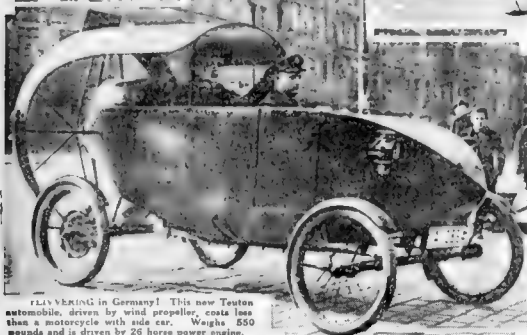

"IS THAT YOU, CAL?" Mrs. Coolidge has become so enthusiastic over wireless telephony that she just radiates radio. Here she is "listening in" at her Washington home. Gets all the Northampton news from the American's radio service.

EGGSTREMES! Or two eggs and a chicken. The eggs were laid within five days by a year-old pullet owned by M. B. Tuttle, No. 72 Oak street, South Weymouth. Paced with Miss May Drummond of Mattapan. She says eggs should be sold by weight and not by the dozen.

ALL PHONES at Everett, Washington, have the new telechromometer which measures the exact tone of a phone talk and gauges the price of it.

LIVING IN Germany! This new Teuton automobile, driven by wind propeller, costs less than a motorcycle with side car. Weighs 250 pounds and is driven by 26 horse power engine.

AN AIRY MERRY-MAID! Cal ready, Nantasket, for the new initiated bathing suit which enables you to swim without danger. You know up the air compartments like a tree—and then splash in. Invented by a Cleveland, Ohio, man. (Underwood)

STEPPING OUT! Eleanor Lee, 6, of Medford, and Josephine Leonard, 7, of South Boston, who will shake their cute little feet at the ball of the Dancers' Club of Boston Monday night at Hotel Vendome.

GREETING THEIR FORMER GOVERNOR! When this party of pretty Boston girls from the Laseil Academy arrived in Washington the first thing they did was call on Vice President Coolidge. Photo shows Miss Mildred Melgaard pinning a class pin on Mr. Coolidge.

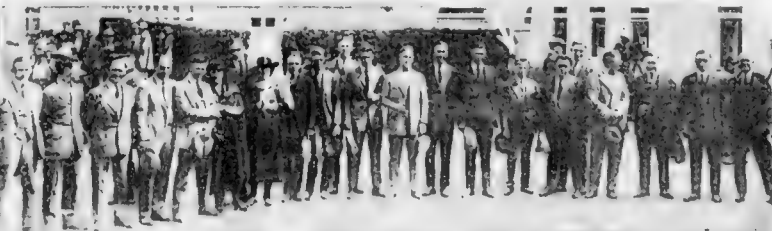

TIPSY-TURVY! Costa Rios has a little method all her own for curing drunkenness, not pleasant but effective. It is none other than use of old-fashioned stocks of New England. This chap is forced to endure the jerns of the passerby. (Gilliam)

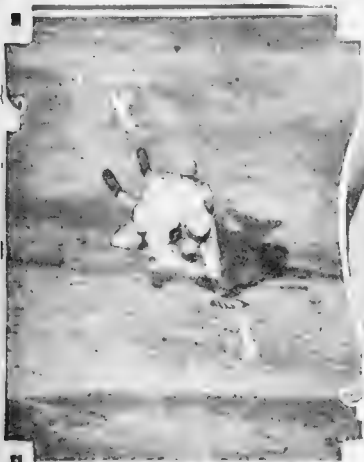

THE FIRST LADY'S EASTER MAT! This charming chapeau of new color French dantelle, joined with tulle, was specially designed for Mrs. Harding. The flowers are blanches colored marguerites. (International News Reel)

WALTER J. HAM-PURGER, who plays the role of former Music Hall girl in the peck show at Jordan Hall tomorrow night. It's for the benefit of Simmons College.

BRAVING THE TRAIL WITH THE BRAVES! Members of the Boston Nationals, their wives and sweethearts and a few distinguished diamond scribes lined up in front of the White House just after they had been greeted by President Harding. The Braves stopped off at Washington while en route from their Spring training camp. The most distinguished of the writers is indicated by the arrow—Mr. Nick Flinley, baseball editor of the Boston American. (Wide World)

DYKES TURNS HIS TOES UP! A thrilling moment in Thursday's Red Sox-Phillies game when Dykes, Philadelphia second baseman, was forced from first to second by Calloway. Dykes plunged into Frai and this is how the camera caught them. Calloway, however, was put out when he tried to score from second.

LILIES ALL! Miss Louisa Bawley, charming daughter of William A. L. Bawley of Commonwealth avenue, who was an active worker at the Easter sale given by Greater Boston society women for the benefit of the South End Music School at No. 665 Boylston street. The elite of Boston turned out.

HOME AGAIN! Miss Beulah, Malden girl, who has just arrived home on the S.S. Stockholm at New York after studying music in Europe for two years. This photograph was made on the deck of the Stockholm. (International News Reel)

I BELIEVE if Beau Brummel and Ben Franklin were living today they would both wear Kaufman Hats.

"Beau Brummel would pick them because they're the dapperest hats in town!"

"Ben Franklin would pick them because they're thrift hats—as good-looking as the hats for which others get five and six dollars—and they're all one price at Kaufman's, $2.65!"

"Come in and get a hat you'll be proud to wear, at a price you will like to pay."

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality
We state it as an honest belief that the tobacco used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.
